III. Statement of the Facts

1. Before and after the ballot on 30 August 1999 the Accused worked for FALINTIL. Like a great part of the population he fled to the mountains around Ermera because the Indonesian Armed Forces and Militia Groups reacted with widespread violence on the result of the ballot and chased persons deemed to be pro-independence..
2. On 25/26 September 1999 the Indonesian Armed Forces and the Darah Merah Militia withdrew from Ermera District and moved to West Timor. Thus the population could return to their homes.

4. On the morning of 26 September 1999 unidentified villagers captured Americo de Jesus Martins. He was brought to a house close to the military compound in Gleno village.
5. Placed on a chair in front of the house and with his hands tied behind his back he was assaulted by the crowd. His ears were cut off.
6. At about ten o'clock the Accused arrived at the scene. He asked Americo de Jesus Martins whether it was true that he was a militia member.
7. When Americo de Jesus Martins said yes to this question the Accused approached him from the right side and stabbed him once with a knife in the right side of the chest. A second stab hit Americo de Jesus Martins in the neck close to the collarbone on the right side.
8. These stabs caused the death of Americo de Jesus Martins.
9. The Accused acted with intent to kill Americo de Jesus Martins.
